Covid-19 Relief Work by Raidighi College Alumni Association

Date: May 31, 2020

Location: Kumrapara, Shankargheri, and Madhusudanchak river bank areas

Participants: Approximately 30 alumni of Raidighi College along with a few faculty members

Objective: The Alumni Association of Raidighi College embarked on a noble mission to extend relief to the communities affected by the dual crisis of Covid-19 and natural calamities. The primary aim was to alleviate the suffering of residents in Kumrapara, Shankargheri, and Madhusudanchak river bank areas, and saline water-logged regions by providing essential supplies and support.

Activities:

- Fundraising: The association initiated a concerted effort to collect funds from alumni members and other sources to support the relief activities.
- Needs Assessment: A meticulous scrutiny of the requirements was conducted to identify the most pressing needs of the affected communities. The assessment highlighted the urgent need for dry food items, baby food, rice, lentils, mustard oil, medicines, and sanitary napkins.
- Procurement of Supplies: With the funds raised, the association procured the necessary relief materials in accordance with the identified needs.
- Volunteer Deployment: The participating alumni and faculty members were organized into groups based on their availability and capabilities. Each group was assigned specific locations to ensure efficient distribution and service.
- Distribution: Adhering strictly to Covid-19 protocols, the relief items were distributed among the residents of Kumrapara, Shankargheri, and Madhusudanchak river bank areas, as well as the saline water-logged regions. Every effort was made to ensure equitable distribution and reach every household in need.

Outcome: The collective efforts of the Raidighi College Alumni Association yielded significant results:

- Essential supplies reached the doorsteps of vulnerable communities, providing them with much-needed relief during these challenging times.
- Residents in the affected areas received critical support, including food, medicine, and hygiene products, which helped alleviate their hardships.
- The initiative fostered a sense of solidarity and community spirit among the alumni and faculty members, reinforcing the ethos of social responsibility and service.

Book Supplies Relief Work by Raidighi College Alumni Association

Date: June 20, 2020

Location: Nagenabad & Kultuli-II areas, affected by Cyclone Amphan

Participants: Approximately 30 alumni of Raidighi College, along with faculty members including Principal Dr. Sasabindu Jana

Objective: In response to the devastation caused by Cyclone Amphan in Nagenabad & Kultuli-II areas, the Alumni Association of Raidighi College initiated a relief effort aimed at providing educational support to the affected villagers. The primary objective was to supply books and stationary items to students whose educational materials were damaged or lost during the disaster.

Activities:

- Fundraising: The Alumni Association, under the guidance of Principal Dr. Sasabindu Jana, launched a fundraising campaign to collect funds for the purchase of books and stationary items.
- Needs Assessment: A thorough assessment of the educational needs of the affected villagers was conducted to ascertain the specific requirements for books and stationary items.
- Procurement of Supplies: With the funds collected, the association procured a variety of books and stationary items suitable for different age groups and educational levels.
- Volunteer Deployment: Alumni members and faculty volunteers were organized into groups based on their availability and expertise. Each group was assigned specific tasks related to the distribution of relief materials.
- Distribution: Adhering to Covid-19 safety protocols, the book and stationary relief items were distributed among the residents of Nagenabad & Kultuli-II areas. Efforts were made to ensure that every student in need received the necessary educational materials.

Outcome: The relief efforts undertaken by the Raidighi College Alumni Association on June 20, 2020, had several positive outcomes:

- Students affected by Cyclone Amphan received much-needed educational support in the form of books and stationary items, enabling them to continue their studies despite the challenges posed by the disaster.
- The initiative helped alleviate the financial burden on families struggling to replace lost or damaged educational materials, fostering a sense of hope and resilience within the community.
- By actively engaging alumni members and faculty volunteers, the association demonstrated the power of collective action in addressing the needs of vulnerable populations during times of crisis.

Conclusion: The Book Supplies Relief Work conducted by the Alumni Association of Raidighi College exemplifies the spirit of solidarity and compassion that defines the college community. Through their

Pustak Dan

Event Date: 12/04/2022

Location: Smart Room

Alumni Association of Raidighi College organized one 'Pustak Dan' to collect usable old books for the needy students. The event aimed to collect a diverse range of books that will enrich the departmental and college libraries, offering students a wider range of resources to learn and develop their reading skills. The initiative also aimed in fostering a love of reading, which is crucial for lifelong learning and academic success. The collection of books will promote equitable access to reading resources which is a major challenge in disadvantaged communities. In the long run this exposure to diverse books can broaden students' perspectives and understanding of the world, promoting social inclusion and reducing inequalities. Principal Dr. Sasabindu Jana, IQAC Coordinators Dr. Sisir Chatterjee and Dr Arunima Biswas encouraged the students and boosted the morale of the participating students.

Alumni Meet & Get-Together

Date: December 20, 2022

Location: Conference Hall, Raidighi College

Participants: Approximately 30 alumni of Raidighi College, along with faculty members including Principal Dr. Sasabindu Jana

Objective: A wave of excitement buzzed through the Raidighi College campus on December 20th. Not for exams or results, but for a moment of collective pride - the inaugural Annual General Meeting of the newly formed alumni association! Laughter mingles with nostalgic whispers as familiar faces, weathered by time but youthful in spirit, reunite over a sumptuous lunch. The aroma of familiar dishes is more than just sustenance; it's a potent memory elixir, conjuring up shared moments in sun-drenched classrooms and starlit quadrangles.

Program: The air crackles with anticipation as the newly elected members are presented. These are not merely names on a list; they are the chosen torchbearers, entrusted with shaping the future of their beloved alma mater. Their diverse paths, forged in the crucible of Raidighi College, now converge with a singular purpose: to guide the next generation and nurture the seeds sown within these hallowed walls.

The discussions are lively, fueled by passion and a deep-seated understanding of the institution's soul. Should the association focus on mentorship, providing career guidance and internship opportunities? Or perhaps invest in scholarships and infrastructure upgrades, leaving a tangible legacy for future students? Every voice matters, every suggestion weighs heavy with the knowledge that the decisions made today will ripple far beyond the present.

Conclusion: As the sun dips below the horizon, casting long shadows across the campus, a sense of unity settles over the gathering. The laughter may cease, but the commitment burns bright. Raidighi College's alumni are not just individuals; they are a tapestry woven from shared experiences, a force dedicated to ensuring that the light of knowledge continues to shine for generations to come. The future may be uncertain, but with this united front, Raidighi College's legacy is in safe hands.
