

Power Back-up and Green Generator

The college, situated in a remote area, used to experience power-cuts and uneven power-supply for a long time. But installation of a Green Generator in the campus has solved the problem of electricity for the college. Now, even if there is a crisis of power or a problem of low voltage, the generator backs them up by generating a steady flow of electricity.